

On behalf of the Rialto Unified School District Board of Education and Superintendent Dr. Cuauhtémoc Avila, congratulations to Mr. Armando Urteaga, Jehue Middle School Principal, for being selected by the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA), Region 12, to receive a top education award. ACSA is the largest organization for school administrators and leaders in the United States, serving more than 17,000 California educators. Mr. Urteaga will be honored as the “2017 Middle School Principal of the Year,” during ACSA’s annual Spring Celebration on Thursday, April 20, 2017. San Bernardino County Superintendent of Schools, Ted Alejandro, and ACSA’s State President, Ralph Gomez-Porrás, will be in attendance to perform the ceremonial duties. “On behalf of the Board of Education, I am extremely proud of Mr. Urteaga’s ACSA recognition,” stated Superintendent, Dr. Avila. “This RUSD leader was nominated, and selected, for excellence in his field. Please join me in congratulating this deserving leader for his tireless commitments to our District, and for earning this respected recognition.”
